

Block Map

25 Learning Blocks, aligned with national board guidelines and research-based international standards

Real and Imaginary

Students understand that a story can be based on real and imaginary scenarios

Making Connections

Students understand that events and scenes in a story can be connected by the time they

A Silly Poem

Students understand how rhyme and rhythm make a poem more interesting and memorable

Describing Words

Students understand that describing words can help create a picture about a thing

Mapping a Story

Students understand that the sequencing of a story affects how the story unfolds in the problem and the best goal is achieved in the problem

Instructions in a Recipe

Students understand that instructions in a recipe help them follow steps to be followed in order

Describing Ourselves and Others

Students understand that we can write about our own and others' feelings using feeling words

Sequencing and Summarising

Students understand that he/she can read a story's most important events in order to remember it and share it with others

Comparing Festivals

Students understand that different festivals are celebrated differently

Visualising the Story

Students understand that pictures and sound words can help in imagining what is happening in a story

Writing a Poem

Students understand that a poem can describe a sport or hobby

Making Sentences

Students understand that all the sentences make up a meaning and are telling about

Text-to-World Connections

Students understand that a text can be connected to our life and in the world around us

Finding the Main Idea

Students understand that stories have a main idea that tells what the story is all about

Paragraph Writing

Students understand the purpose of a topic sentence and other sentences in a paragraph

Elements of a Folktale

Students understand that folktale is a story from long ago that teaches a lesson

Making Predictions

Students understand that we can make and check predictions about a story

Solving a Riddle

Students understand that a set of clues can help to solve a riddle

Writing about My Day

Students understand that we can write a paragraph to describe a day in our life

Composing Poems

Students understand that we can use sentences with 1 to 5 words and create about imaginary things

Writing a List Poem

Students understand that poems can describe problems and suggested solutions

Writing about the Past

Students understand to use past tense words to describe events that happened before now

Compare and Contrast

Students understand that we can compare and contrast two situations

Cause and Effect

Students understand that stories can describe the cause and effect of feelings

Reading a Play

Students understand that a play is a story written to be acted out by characters on a stage