

Block Map

25 Learning Blocks, aligned with national board guidelines and research-based international standards.

Block 1 	Shifting Families Strand: Living Together Students will understand that the structure of families is changing due to migration, and can give reasons why families migrate.	Block 2 	Living in a Community Strand: Living Together Students will understand that interdependence forms the basis of living together in a community.
Block 3 	A Home for Everyone Strand: Living Together Students will understand that a house, which is a space for shelter, sharing and living together, is adapted to suit different regions and people.	Block 4 	Losing Our Homes Strand: Living Together Students will understand how natural disasters put our homes and shelters at risk, and that emergency services help us deal with such situations.
Block 5 	Our Built Heritage Strand: Our Heritage and Culture Students will understand that built heritage reveals information about our past and it needs to be conserved.	Block 6 	Caring for Animals Strand: Our Environment Students will understand how human activities threaten the animal world, and their responsibility in protecting animals.
Block 7 	Pollution in the Environment Strand: Our Environment Students will understand that air, noise and water pollution affect people and the environment.	Block 8 	Coming of the British Strand: Our Historical Past Students will understand the causes and effects of events in the initial years of the British rule in India.
Block 9 	Rise of Nationalism Strand: Our Historical Past Students will understand that there were different methods of struggle were used in India against the British rule.	Block 10 	Gandhi and the Freedom Movement Strand: Our Historical Past Students will understand the importance of non-violence in the Indian freedom struggle.
Block 11 	India's Independence Strand: Our Historical Past Students will understand the factors that led to India's independence from the British in the last phase of the freedom struggle.	Block 12 	People Who Made a Difference Strand: Our Historical Past Students will understand the power of one person to bring about changes in society.

Block 13 	Using Maps and Globe Strand: Maps and Globe Students will understand that maps and globe are representations of the Earth's surface that are used for learning and exploring places.	Block 14 	Parallels and Meridians Strand: Maps and Globe Students will understand that latitudes and longitudes help us locate places.
Block 15 	Motions of the Earth Strand: Earth and the Universe Students will understand that the Earth rotates and revolves around the sun, which causes the change in day and night and the seasons.	Block 16 	Weather and Climate Strand: Climate on Earth Students will understand that various factors affect the climate of a place.
Block 17 	The Desert Region Strand: Climate on Earth Students will understand that the climate and natural landscape of the desert influences its vegetation, wildlife, occupation, and lifestyles of people.	Block 18 	The Tropical Forest Region Strand: Climate on Earth Students will understand that the climate and natural landscape of the tropical forest influences its vegetation, wildlife, occupation, and the lifestyles of people.
Block 19 	Temperate Grasslands Strand: Climate on Earth Students will understand that the climate of a temperate grassland influences its vegetation, wildlife, occupation, and the lifestyles of people.	Block 20 	Arctic Tundra Region Strand: Climate on Earth Students will understand that the climate of the Arctic Tundra region influences its vegetation, wildlife, occupation and the lifestyles of people.
Block 21 	Elections Strand: Governing Ourselves Students will understand that elections help us choose people who can lead us.	Block 22 	Our Government Strand: Governing Ourselves Students will understand that the government creates and enforces laws and represents the needs of the people.
Block 23 	The United Nations Organization Strand: Governing Ourselves Students will understand the need for an international organisation to promote peace and development through collective measures.	Block 24 	Voyages Strand: Travel and Transport Students will understand that voyages bring change and lead to new discoveries.
Block 25 	Written Communication Strand: Connecting People Students will understand how written communication changed over time.		